THE MATTER OF CONVOCATIONS. Bishop Paret Characterizes the Report of a Committee as Disrespectful to himself.

Calbraith B. Perry, from the committee appointed to consider that portion of the bishop's address relating to convocations, rose to make his report, when the bishop said that he understood that the committee had something to propose entirely different from the matter referred to it, and that Calbraith B. Perry, from the committee appointed such matter ought not to come up in such a con-ing McElroy, Messrs. Charles A. Stanley, and H. C. Turnbull, jr.

The following standing committee was re-elected: Revs. Orlando Hutton, D. D., Walter W. Williams, D. D., John H. Elliott, S. T. D., Augustus P. Stryker, William L. Hyland, D. D., Arthur J. Rich, M. D., J. S. B. Hedges, S. T. D.

Messrs. Chas. F. Taylor and Wm. G. Bowdoin were re-elected trustees of church charities. The bishop reappointed, as the ecclesiastical court, the Revs. Win. F. Brand, S. T. D.; Thos. J. Wyatt, Geo. H. Leakin, Cleland K. Nelson, D. D.; Geo. C. Stokes, Wm. S. Southgate, and Geo. K. Warner. Mr. Edgar G. Miller was re-elected treasurer of the convention.

Rev. Geo. B. Johnson presented the report of a committee on assessments for diocesan missions. The Rev. Dr. Wm. L. Hyland offered a minority report. The discussion of the two reports involved a further consideration of the convocational system, and in the ensuing debate the Rev. Dr. Jas. Stephenson, the Rev. Thos. S. Bacon, the Rev. Dr. Jno. H. Elliott, Messrs. Chas. Abert, Jos. Pacard, jr., and Dr. P. C. Williams took part. On motion of Mr. Abert, the whole matter of convocations was referred to a special committee. On a tions was referred to a special committee. On a motion to refer to the same committee the report laid on the table in the morning. Bishop Paret said that the report had been disrespectful to himself and the convention, and to take it from the table would be disrespectful. The Rev. Mr. Perry said that the committee had made no evaluation of the matter referred to it. The proof was sion of the matter referred to it. The report was

The brewers resumed their labors in Balimore yesterday morning, and after listening to reports of the various committees adopted resolu-tions appropriating $5,000 for the assistance of the brewers of Michigan, $5,000 for the brewers of Texas, and $3,000 for the brewers of Tennessee, the money to be used in defeating the efforts of the prohibitionists in those states. The sum of $9,000 was also appropriated to use of the publica-tion committee.

on motion of Henry Clausen, jr., of New York, an extra assessment equal to one year's dues was agreed upon to enable the board of trustees to fight the temperance people in various sections of the country. The nominating committee put in nomination the following ticket, which was elected by acclamation: President, Wm. A. Miles, of New York; vice-presidents, Henry Clausen, jr., of New York, and Thies J. Lefens, of Chicago; treasurer, J. Chr. G. Hupfel, of New York.

A vigilance committee of twenty-five and an advisory committee of fifteen were also elected. St. Paul, Minn., was selected as the place of the next meeting, and the convention adjourned, after passing resolutions of thanks to the local browers association, the mayor of Baltimore, the press, and the retiring officers. Richard Katzemmeyer, of New York, was reappointed secretary of the association, and G. Thoman, manager of the literary bureau.

A BALTIMORE WIDOW'S DAYLIGHT ENCOUNTER WITH

While Mrs. Mary A. Ridley, a widow living near Baltimore, was coming through Druid Hill Park and came toward her. The man saw Mrs. Ridley, but passed on. The shower soon stopped, and Mrs. Ridley started again for the gate. She had gone about 20 yards when she heard a slight rustling of leaves behind her. She turned quickly, and the negro seized both her arms. Mrs. Ridley broke from his grasp and struck him several times in the face. He caught her again and endeavored to throw her down, but before he succeeded she struck him twice again in the mouth. Then he threw her to the ground, and when he found she would not yield he began to pound her unmeratnearly out, and her right eye was battered until the flesh around it was terribly bruised and black-ened. The mulatto, fearing that her cries would be heard, snatched her pocketbook and ran off. She went to Justice Duffy's house, a quarter of a mile away, and told him her story. Just as she finished speaking, she fainted. A negro named Thomas Henry, who was arrested on suspicion, confessed to Marshal Jocob Frey yesterday afteraoon at police headquarters, in Baltimore, in the presence of Deputy Marshal Lannan, Capt. Freeburger and Detective Pumphrey, that he assaulted the lady, claiming, however, to nave attacked her only for money, having seen a purse in her hand.

True Frontier Style. Then she gave the whole story, but what it was will not be known whole nish him one, and the two men went together to Burke's house, at the head of the main street, Burke procured two 45's, and stepping up to the fence, threw one of them down on the ground, remarking, "There's your gun." "That's no way to do," said Ryan; "you can shoot me while I am picking up the gun. Besides, I don't know that it's loaded." Burke then threw his gun down on the ground and the two men picked up the guns together. While Ryan was examining his gun to see if it was loaded, Burke fired at him twice without effect. Ryan then leveled his gun and quickly took a deliberate aim and fired, when the "Terror of the Biack Range" fell dead. The ball struck a little to the left of the bridge of the nose and passed out through the back of the head. Ryan was placed under $4,000 bonds. It seems to be the general opinion at Kingston that Burke received his ju-deserts. Mr. Holmes' Seven Wives.

THEY ALL APPEAR AT HIS FUNERAL WITH THRU CHILDREN. The New York Sun, May 26, says: Seven women accompanied by eleven children, attended the funeral of the late John Bute Holmes, in St. Joseph's church, in Plainfield, N. J., on Monday Each asserted that she was his widow, and that Each asserted that she was his widow, and that he was the father of her children. Men who were active in politics during the Tweed regime will remember Holmes, who was city surveyor at that time. It is said that some of the maps he made are the most valuable property he left. Many years ago Holmes suspected a New York policeman of being on too familiar terms with his wife. He shot the policeman. He was convicted and sent to prison, but was pardoned after serving a short time. He moved to Scotch Plains, near Plainfield, twenty-two years ago.

"speech," Mr. O'Brien made a ten-minute speech, in which he referred to the universal hospitality with which he had been received everywhere in America; to the feeling of security he experienced when he found himself under the glorious stars and stripes at Cape Vincent, and to the great honor now accorded him by the legislature of New York. The Irish cause, he declared, would ever go on. Nothing could daunt its promoters; they had the greatest leader in history and the greatest living Englishman—Gladstone—for their advocate. The liberal party of England had never undertaken a great movement which it had not ultitaken a great movement which it had not ulti-mately carried to success. He could assure them he said, that American sympathy greatly nerved and encouraged every advocate and promoter of the Irish cause, even Parnell and Gladstone them-selves

STRANGE DISAPPRARANCE OF A CHILD.—A Norfolk, Va., special to the Baltimore American, May 25, says: The eastern portion of the city is greatly excited over the mysterious disappearance of little Mattle Nicholson, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mack Nicholson, late foreman of the Virginian, and who himself recently so mysteriously disappeared. Little Mattle resided with her mother at No. 25 Clay street, and has not been seen since 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Her mother reprimanded her that morning by a slight punishment, when the child went up stairs to her room. When called by her mother an hour later there was no response. Thinking she had probably stepped out, Mrs. Nicholson paid no attention to her absence, but when night came, and the child did not return, the family became greatly alarmed. The police authorities were notified of the disappearance, but up to a late hour this evening no clue of her whereabouts had been gleaned. Mattle is a very bright and attractive child, and tears are entertained that she has been abducted.
